

Caring for an Aging Parent Checklist	Y	N	N/A
GENERAL INFORMATION
Has personal information been gathered?
Name, phone number, and address of parent
Parent's date of birth
Parent's Social Security number
Name, phone number, and address of attorney, physician, geriatric care manager, or other advisor
Parent's legal state of residence
Parent's health status
Parent's marital status
Family members available for support
Has your parent's financial situation been assessed?
Income from pension, Social Security, employment, or other source
Expenses
Assets
Liabilities
RISK MANAGEMENT PLANNING
Does your parent have long-term care insurance?
Does your parent have adequate health insurance?
Medicare
Medigap
Does your parent have an adequate amount of other types of insurance?
Homeowners insurance
Auto insurance
Umbrella liability insurance
ESTATE PLANNING
Durable power of attorney
Living will
Health-care proxy
Revocable living trust
Is the trustee of the trust and durable power of attorney the same person or are they different?
Should an estate planning attorney who specializes in elder law be consulted?
Has your parent prepared letters of instruction?
If your parent's estate is likely to be subject to estate tax, have ways to minimize estate taxes been considered?
Has your parent made funeral arrangements?
Has a family meeting taken place?

HOUSING ISSUES	Y	N	N/A
Have contingency plans been made in case a housing change is necessary in the future?
Have your parent's wishes regarding housing been considered?
Have your wishes regarding housing been considered?
Does your parent currently need nursing home care?
Have alternative housing options been explored?
Remaining in home (possibly with in-home care)
Moving in with relative
Assisted living
Continuing care retirement communities
Senior apartments
Nursing home
Have adult day-care options been discussed and evaluated?
FINANCIAL ISSUES
Does your parent have enough money from income and savings to sustain his or her lifestyle?
Is his or her asset allocation still appropriate?
Is your parent able to make appropriate financial decisions?
Should the financial power of attorney and or trustee be involved in assisting your parent with cash flow needs?
Does Medicaid planning need to be considered?
Will your parent be dependent on you for financial support?
If so, have your financial needs been considered?
Have distribution strategies been discussed and evaluated?
OTHER
Bank account records (statements and passbooks)
Stock certificates, bonds, and other investment records
Credit card statements
Mortgage, insurance, utility bills
Retirement plan statements
Income tax returns for the last three years
Real estate deeds, mortgages, and other property ownership records
Vehicle titles
Business agreements
Insurance policies
Will, trust, advanced directives, letters of instruction, and other documents
Location of and key to safe-deposit box
Birth certificate and marriage or divorce certificates
Citizenship records
Passport
Military records
If your parent has an interest in a business, have arrangements been made to continue or dispose of the interest in the event of incapacity or death?			